

OFFICE FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES SERVICES AND SUPPORT

→ OFFICE FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

EQUALITY AT LEUPHANA

The Office of Equal Opportunities provides various counselling, awareness and offer of support with regard to:

- gender equality
- equal opportunities, diversity and inclusion
- experienced and observed discrimination
- sexualized violence
- reconcilability of studies, doctorate or career with family life

Finding Services and Support through Information Portals

Information portals such as "Against Sexual Harassment", "Study and Impairment" and "Protection against Discrimination in Digital Teaching" offer a wide range of information and show possibilities for action.

Anti-Discrimination Counselling

In cooperation with diversu e.V., Leuphana offers independent and free counselling to those affected by discrimination. On campus, in the office of diversu or by phone. Incidents can be reported anonymously online.

Gender Diversity Certificate

Within the certificate, students acquire gender diversity competencies that enable them to reflect on and analyze societal diversity and inequalities. The workload comprises 20 CPs in the Bachelor's program and 15 CPs in the Master's program.

Family Services

The Family Services at the Office for Equal Opportunities provides advice and information on all issues of reconcilability and family-friendly infrastructure.

Further information on these and other topics on:

www.leuphana.de/gleichstellung